

The Regional Science Academy

Special Academic Meeting (SAS)

Thursday, August 29th, 2019, Lyon, France

‘Signatures of Regional Science’
of

The Regional Science Academy (TRSA):

:

IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF WALTER ISARD

Venue:

Room: IUT Room Amphi 10

This event is organised on the occasion of the ERSA Conference in Lyon, August 27th to 30th, 2019. This meeting is open for all participants of the ERSA Conference and aims to celebrate the scientific ambition of this international gathering.

INVITATION

‘Signatures of Regional Science’
of
*The Regional Science Academy

IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF WALTER ISARD: AN EVENT TO MARK THE CENTENARY OF THE BIRTH OF WALTER ISARD, FOUNDER OF REGIONAL SCIENCE

Thursday, 29th August, 2019

OPEN ACADEMIC FORUM

14:00 Welcome – Peter Nijkamp, Vice-President, *The Regional Science Academy (TRSA)

SIGNATURES OF REGIONAL SCIENCE

Chair: Peter Batey, President of TRSA

The Regional Science Academy (TRSA) Lecture Series: “The Voices of the Regional Science Academy:

14.10 Ake Andersson The Impossibility of the Dynamic Triple Helix

The Voices of the Regional Science Academy: In the Footsteps of Walter Isard:

14:40 Peter Batey Walter Isard, Regional Science and Spatial Planning

15.10 Daniel Shefer The Impact of Regional Science on Urban and Regional Planning

15.40 Tomaz Dentinho Spatial and Human Factors that Structure the Complexity of Urban Systems: The evidence of the Portuguese Cities

16.10 Coffee break

16.30 Henk Folmer What is Regional Science?

17.00 Maria Karanika Regional Science: exhortations for thoughts

17.30 Ex Libris: Two regional scientists will speak about publications that have been of critical importance for their career

Antoine Bailly and Robert Stimson

18.00 Closing remarks